The hospitals available to serve our residents are: Vassar Brothers Medical Center and St. Francis Hospital in Poughkeepsie, Sharon Hospital in Sharon, Connecticut, and Northern Dutchess Hospital in Rhinebeck. Green Briar provides transportation on an as needed basis for medical office visits. EMS provides emergency medical services. Residents choose their own doctors and other health providers.

Mental health services are available to our residents by the Dutchess County Department of Health through their Millbrook office.

Location – Dutchess County

Located in the center of the Hudson Valley, the county's heritage includes the period when the city of Poughkeepsie served as the capital of New York State. The home and library of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Vanderbilt Mansion and Museum are major historical attractions. Millbrook is an antique lover's paradise, with many famous antique shops lining the village streets. Many excellent restaurants and country inns are situated in the surrounding areas. The village is also noted for its thoroughbred horse farms and the Millbrook Hunt. In the fall, nearby back roads are ablaze with fall foliage and provide serene day trips. Nearby, Rhinebeck is considered the crafts capital of the East, symbolized by the Rhinebeck Crafts Fair.
